

Northern Labor Market Committee Update

Program Offerings at First Nations University of Canada – Prince Albert Campus

Northern Campus Mission Statement

The mission of the First Nations University of Canada, Northern Campus is to increase Aboriginal and Non-Aboriginal access to university degrees, diplomas, and certificate courses, as well as, to preserve, protect, and interpret the history, language, cultural and artistic heritage of First Nations people.

Three Campuses

- › Regina – 249 students
- › Saskatoon – 79 students
- › Prince Albert – 288 students

Program and Course Offerings

- › Programs at the Prince Albert Site
  - Arts and Science
    - Examples of course offerings: Cree, Saulteaux, Math, Humanities, Indigenous Studies, Psychology, Sociology, English, Geography
  - Northern Health Science Access Program
  - Indigenous Teacher Education Program
  - Indian Social Work
  - Indigenous Studies
  - Pre-Health Studies

For more course information, please contact:

Lorie Smith, Assistant Registrar
(306) 765-3333 ext. 7105
Toll free: 1-866-526-6578
lsmith@fnuniv.ca

